Waiting for the troops to get home (10/11)

Calling the troops home from Iraq.

Ending the overseas wars...

Unless you think about it, you wouldn't even know it all happened? Since Mass Media isn't reporting it

Also, putting in place regulations to improve the performance of the police depts throughout the Country and to keep a record and track of the bad cops.

Getting the sadistic health care workers out of the Veteran's dept.

I thought this 8kun free speech was a happy place.

YOU CAN'T FIND IT ANYWHERE

A GREAT GIFT

It sure brought me happiness, like I never imagined could happen,

ever since he won over HRC

and I realized the DEMs were finished after readin the wiki emails excerpts..

I think the real stress on my system ended for me after this last convention.

Notice how the bad shilling came back. It had been gone for a while?

I could be wrong but it's been amped up?

e b o t is back shadowing me again.

hi

All the haters and blackmailed are arrayed against us; they picked their side and revealed themselves.

What next?

I thought "we" were one happy-ish family enjoying the unfoldment of the Great Awakening. Basking in the accomplishment of the greatest Prez our imaginations could ever conjure.
Easily demolishing every shill-shit they throw at us. With ease.

When the FED ended, (absorbed into Treasury) nobody celebrated. It wasn't announced on the Mainstream. So it was like it didn't happen?
When he made peace with North Korea, unexpectedly. When we saw it from his plane flying over.
When we experienced all the foiled plots to kill him, including Kate the bait.
with Comey signaling to her from Congress?
When the plot to kill the R. Senate was foiled, the day after the great first SOTU address.
When he announced billions from China would be given to farmers
When his daughter announced 1 billion to feed the hungry with the money going directly to farmers, no middlemen
When he announced the surplus in Treasury of 300 billions to give back to the people for stimulus (what's happening, fault of China)
When he fucked- over the big Pharma who've been overcharging, withholding cures, planning eugenics and mass murder,
And then we see AOC choking on it when she tried to talk about prices of drugs - almost looking like a reptile: He took her platform!
PEACE in the MIDDLE EAST TREATY
Ending of annexation of West Bank , for now and forever if DJT gets his second term.
Only waited for that israeli peace for 50 years!

(Waited for the viper FED to end for 106!)

Calling the troops home from Iraq.
Ending the overseas wars...

Unless you think about it, you wouldn't even know it all happened? Since Mass Media isn't reporting it
Also, putting in place regulations to improve the performance of the police depts throughout the Country and to keep a record and track of the bad cops.
Getting the sadistic heath care workers out of the Veteran's dept.
I thought this 8kun free speech was a happy place!
YOU CAN'T FIND IT ANYWHERE
A GREAT GIFT

It sure brought me happiness, like I never imagined could happen,

See how the shill are so desperate to destroy our happiness?!

Trump won over HRC - who they swore would beat him easily Whadda joke. On them.

and I realized the DEMs were finished after readin the wiki emails excerpts..

I think the real stress on my system ended for me after this last convention.
Notice how the bad shilling came back.
Soon after POTUS advised the world that we are against the violence in the cities
Which means we are free of the "terrorism" category they tried so hard to place us in.

the Heavy shilling been gone for a while?

Hasn't it been been obviously amped up?
They realized, finally, that they were losing and so renewed their futile and stupid effort.
At least they are getting paid though?
Unless they are perp Principals, who do their own defense?
e b o t is back shadowing me again.

There are enough numbers in the world that if you stare at them long enough you can always find connections.

If you see a connection you need to then step back and ask if what it implies, what is required for it to be a real causative connection, is plausible.

Anon probably shouldn't have posted the Judas Priest "Sentinental" video after Q made the drop. It's just that it seemed to fit the drop so well. Thematically speaking of course. But yeah, from the standpoint of being a Christian, probably not the wisest move on my part. I'll ask God to forgive me.

Temperatures in the fire zone were in the 90s, but that was cool compared to many parts of the state. Downtown Los Angeles reached 111 degrees (44 Celsius), and a record-shattering high of 121 degrees (49.4 Celsius) was recorded in the nearby Woodland Hills neighborhood of the San Fernando Valley. Highest ever recorded in Los Angeles!

121 Degrees!

It was the highest temperature ever recorded in Los Angeles County, according to the National Weather Service. The mark rivaled the high in California's Death Valley, typically the hottest place in the country.

2 months ago, I weighed 435 pounds.

I can tell you that it was near impossible to wipe my ass.

At 400 lbs is when it really started to get difficult, and then I got laid off and sat around the house...

ballooned up to 435 really quick!

Now I'm down to 370 lbs in just 2 months. Got myself all educated on Keto lifestyle and intermittent fasting protocol.

I can clean my own ass properly now and I can pull my feet up to wash them in the shower!

It's the little things that matter and we take for granted!

I thank Anons for encouragement and the help I needed to turn myself around!

Lots of great info I gleaned off this board.
